

► People

Leo Melamed, president and founder of Dellsher Investment Co., has been elected to a third term as chairman of the board of governors of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange. It was the second successive time that Melamed was elected by acclamation. He was first elected chairman last year after the exchange celebrated its 50th anniversary.

Melamed

Co., has been elected to a third term as chairman of the board of governors of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange. It was the second successive time that Melamed was elected by acclamation.

tion. He was first elected chairman last year after the exchange celebrated its 50th anniversary.

Chicago today Finance

Tuesday, January 12, 1971

33

Melamed reelected to C. M. E.

LEO MELAMED has been reelected to a third straight term as chairman of the board of governors of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange.

According to Everette B. Harris, C. M. E. president, Melamed was elected chairman by acclamation for the second time in a row.

Melamed is president and founder of Dellsher Investment Co., of Chicago.

CHICAGO SUN-TIMES, Wed., Jan. 13, 1971

Merc re-elects Melamed

Leo Melamed has been elected to a third term as chairman of the board of governors of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange. He is president of Dellsher Investment Co.

Also elected by the board were Gerald Hirsch, vice president of Saul Stone & Co., as first vice chairman; Michael

LEO MELAMED

Weinberg Jr., treasurer of Weinberg Bros. & Co., as second vice president; William C. Munro, secretary-treasurer of Barnes Brokerage Co., as secretary, and Daniel R. Jessor, a partner of Miller & Co., as treasurer. Newly elected to the board for two-year terms are Marlowe King, president of King and King Inc., and Lloyd Arnold, vice president, Heinold Commodities Inc.