

LEO MELAMED RE-ELECTED TO MERCANTILE POST

Leo Melamed, a general partner of Dellsber Investment company, Chicago commodity broker, has been re-elected by acclamation as chairman of the governing board of the Chicago Mercantile exchange.

Melamed

Melamed, who finished his first term as chairman in 1969, is the first man in the history of the exchange to be reelected by acclamation to the post of chairman.

CHICAGO SUN-TIMES, Wed., Jan. 14, 1970

Merc re-elects Leo Melamed

Leo Melamed has been re-elected chairman of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange.

LEO MELAMED

Melamed, re-elected by acclamation, is the first man in the 50-year history of the exchange to be re-elected in this manner. He is a general partner of Dellsber Investment Co.

Other officers re-elected to one-year terms included Glenn Andersen, president, Andoc Inc., first vice chairman; Gerald Hirsch, vice president Saul Stone & Co., second vice president; Michael Weinberg Jr., treasurer, Weinberg Bros. & Co., formerly board secretary and now treasurer; William C. Muno, secretary-treasurer, Barnes Brokerage Co., formerly board treasurer and now secretary.

PICKWICK NEWSPAPERS — Thursday, January 23, 1970

MELAMED

LEO MELAMED - - - - - of Skokie, general partner of Dellsber Investment Co., Chicago, has been re-elected by acclamation as chairman of the board of governors of the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, which leads the nation in dollar value of commodity futures contracts traded, Everette B. Harris, exchange president, announced. Melamed, who served his first term in 1969, is the first man in the 53-year history of the exchange to be re-elected chairman by acclamation.

Melamed, a member of the board since 1966, is a graduate of the University of Illinois and is also a member of the Chicago, Illinois and American Bar Assns.