
Who's News

*Management—
Personnel Notes*

...

...

...

Finance

Chicago Mercantile Exchange—Leo Melamed, president of Dellsher Investment Co., was elected chairman of this commodities futures exchange. He succeeds John T. Geldermann. Mr. Melamed previously held the post from 1969 through 1971. Laurence M. Rosenberg of Anspacher & Associates, was named first vice chairman, and Carl E. Anderson, of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Inc., was named second vice chairman. Jerry D. Wetterling of E. F. Hutton & Co., was elected to the board of governors and was named treasurer of the exchange. Also named to the board of governors were Henry G. Jarecki of Mocatta Trading Corp., Barry J. Lind of Lind-Waldock & Co. and Daniel R. Jesser of Miller-Jesser Inc.