

| IN THE LOOP |

DIVERSIONS

LEO MELAMED

CHAIRMAN EMERITUS AND
SENIOR POLICY ADVISER
FOR THE CHICAGO
MERCANTILE EXCHANGE

LAST GOOD MOVIE YOU SAW:

"Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone." They did a good job on bringing out the imagery in the book.

BOOK YOU'RE READING:

"John Adams" by David McCullough. I never knew the power of that man's mind. I guess none of us did. We've always assumed that Thomas Jefferson was the only real intellectual.

CD YOU'RE LISTENING TO:

In my car, the only recording I have is Frank Sinatra. I'm one of those old fogies.

FAVORITE RESTAURANT:

Gene & Georgetti, which I've been frequenting for the last 25 years.

FAVORITE GADGET:

A little penknife that I carry with me for a thousand purposes a day. But the airlines won't let me travel with it anymore. It's a great problem. [Economist] Milton Friedman and I have the same belief in these little penknives: that you can't get through the day without using them for something.